Cathy Duffy Reviews

Life Prep.... Both because of the content and the design, I think homeschoolers are likely to find this one of the most practical and important resources for high school.

Life Prep for Homeschooled Teenagers is an amazing resource designed for those preparing to leave home.

Homeschooling From The Heart

The two components of Life Prep for Homeschooled Teenagers are a reading list and a set of projects, designed to expose teens to principles, skills, and information needed by most adults... High school students will likely find these projects meaningful and relevant, as they teach something students this age are eager to learn: what you need to know to live on your own.

P.S. - Many young (and not-so-young) adults may find this resource useful, too!

EHO Eclectic Homeschool Online

My parents didn't teach me about such practical issues as budgeting, wise use of credit ... purchasing a car, or tackling such problems as health insurance and taxes. ....Yes, I was the proverbial babe in the woods, and so from my own experience I can tell you that by using this book as it is intended you will save your children much future grief. ...Barbara Frank has put together a clear, helpful guide that covers more than I had thought of myself, in putting together a list of what our teen needs to know before she sprouts feathers and flies the nest.

Life Prep for Homeschooled Teenagers is an excellent curriculum that teaches teenagers valuable skills that they will need as they enter the adult world. It's a great book to use with ALL teens, not just homeschoolers. I am using Life Prep with all my teens - ranging from 15 years old to 19 years old. What an eye opener for them! I highly recommend going through this book with your teens before they leave home.

The Old Schoolhouse™

Life Prep for Homeschooled Teenagers.... is certainly very user-friendly and creates a simple yet effective approach for teaching life skills. The only negative thing I have on this book is the title. I think this course would be effective for ALL teens, and if put in the hands of our public schooled friends and relatives as well as the homeschooled ones, we may be able to protect many of these kids from the financial mistakes many of us made.

I highly recommend this book for anyone with older children. While I am doing this with my daughter now at age 16, it would certainly be a beneficial study for 14 and 15 year olds as well. Actually, I'm hoping I might learn something.
